

STOP RAPING OUR GREATEST RESOURCE

See survivors under the age of 8.

Hundreds of thousands of girls and women in the Democratic Republic of Congo are raped, sexually tortured, and mutilated. Like these young girls, they lose face, while their perpetrators walk free. Without your support, their future remains in jeopardy.

POWER TO WOMEN AND GIRLS OF DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO

VCU Institute for Women's Health
VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY

Come Join the Conversation

Join us for a discussion - Violence Against Women in the Congo

Come together to learn about the history and current situation in the DRC where women are bearing the brunt of the vicious war in the region.

Explore tools, resources and strategies to activate and motivate ourselves and the public to put pressure on elected officials, to influence and change policy and to raise awareness by building a movement of activists.

Join us to raise our voices in solidarity with women in the Congo.

Date: Tuesday, March 24, 2009

Time: 6:30 to 8:00 pm

Location: 907 Floyd Ave (Student Commons)

Suite 215 -Office of Multicultural Student Affairs (OMSA)

For more information contact:

Janett Forte @ 827-1200 or

Jeanne Schlesinger @ 828.3918

Co- sponsored by the Institute for Women's Health,
VCU Wellness Resource Center:
Sexual Assault & Domestic Violence Services,
Office of Multicultural Student Affairs (OMSA),
and the Department of Women's Studies