VCU WOMEN'S SURGICAL CARE WING

At the VCU Medical Center, the commitment to quality clinical care for women is paramount. The Women's Surgical Care Wing was designed to cater to the pre-operative and post-operative needs of female patients.

The multidisciplinary unit is available to women having a variety of surgical procedures, including benign gynecology, gynecologic and surgical oncology, urogynecology, pelvic floor reconstruction, plastic and general surgery.

The staff at the Women's Surgical Care Wing is dedicated to providing quality patient-centered care in a comforting, compassionate and professional environment.

Our promise to our patients and their loved ones is to honor the trust placed in us by seeking the best experience and optimal outcome for every woman. Recent satisfaction surveys show that our patients rank their care as excellent more than 93 percent of the time.

Our multidisciplinary, patient-centered philosophy reflects our commitment:

- To recognize and respond to the unique needs of each woman
- To empower women through education and information
- To support patient privacy
- To engage family, friends and support partners in patient care
- To provide complementary therapies such as aromatherapy, massage, music therapy and relaxation techniques
- To create a peaceful and supportive environment through thoughtful architectural and interior design

The Women's Surgical Care Wing has 18 comfortable and attractive private rooms, available on a first-come, first-served basis. The unit features unique amenities such as:

- Sleep chairs for family members
- A family-style kitchen that includes free coffee
- An entertainment room with a television and DVD player
- A library filled with books for pleasure or for learning more about medicine
- A computer with Internet access

A Commitment to Women's Health

The Women's Surgical Care Wing is closely affiliated with the VCU Institute for Women's Health, one of 20 National Centers of Excellence in Women's Health by the Office of Women's Health of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

At the heart of the Institute is the Women's Health Center at Stony Point, a comprehensive outpatient health care facility for women. Services include primary care medicine, obstetrics and gynecology, breast and bone health, health education classes and a women's health resource center.
